

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL XIX.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1897.

NO. 48

$7.50

Will buy a genuine imported black

Clay Worsted Suit

Good weight, made up well, in a round or square cut sack or a 3 button cutaway.

—All Sizes 34 to 44.—

These suits will be

WORTH $10.00

Sure as soon as the new tariff goes through.

BUY ONE NOW.

J. H. Anderson & Co.

PANTS! PANTS! PANTS!

If You Wear Them
Look at These prices?

Mens all wool pants worth $4.00 for 2.25
Men's all wool pants worth 3.00 for 1.99
Men's all wool pants worth 2.00 for 1.25
Men's cotton and wool pants
worth 1.50 for .99

3.3

3.3

Men's mole skin pants worth 1.00 for .69
Men's heavy cotton pants
worth 1.00 for .69
Men's cottonade pants for .49

WE WILL SAVE YOU MONEY ON PANTS.

Petree & Co.

Sign of the Big Boot.

Public Appreciation

Nerves our efforts and we are showing our appreciation by the prices we are making.

If It Is High Class

Goods you are thinking of, link us with your thoughts, and we will convince you that the best is not to good, if prices are right.

Remember

That we can show you any thing you may need in Harness, saddles, blankets, collars,

Back bands, hames, chains, etc., and an elegant line of Lap Dusters.

We carry the LARGEST stock and give LOWEST prices.

F. A. YOST & CO.

207 South Main.

CREAM OF NEWS.

IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN HAS IT.

Two More Suicides—Drowned—Sudden Death—Leg Broken—Mysterious Disappearance.

A Democratic Postmaster.

Four postmasters for Kentucky were named Tuesday. One of them was T. D. Watts, at Kennedy, Christian county, a Democrat who was appointed because there was no white Republican competent to fill the place.

Baptist General Association.

The General Association of Baptist, is in session at Georgetown this week. Rev. C. H. Nash, Dr. Edmund Harrison, Rev. J. M. Bow, of Pembroke, and Rev. I. H. Strother, of Cadiz, are in attendance from this vicinity.

Nothing Doing in Court.

Things have been at a standstill in circuit court since the last report. Only a few minor matters of no general interest have been disposed of. Next week the commonwealth cases will be resumed, the Clifton Garrett case being on the docket for Monday.

Sunday School Pic-nic.

On Tuesday the Sunday schools of the Christian church, from the towns of Morganfield, Henderson, Princeton, and other places along the line of the O. V., spent the day at Cernleau Springs picnicking. It took six coaches to carry the merry makers, there being about 500 people in all.

A Young Miner Drowned.

A young negro named George Yates, about 21 years of age, was drowned in a pond at Empire Tuesday night. He had been at work all day in the mines and came out hot and wet with perspiration and went into the water to bathe. He was taken with cramps while beyond his depth and was drowned before assistance could reach him.

Suicide in North Todd.

James Wilkins, a well-known old citizen near Allegree, was found hanging dead to a tier-pole in his barn at an early hour Tuesday morning.

Mr. Wilkins retired about 10 o'clock Monday night and nothing was known of him until found dead as above mentioned at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning, when the family went out to feed.

Deceased was about 70 years old and had been in bad health for a number of years.

Public Schools Out To-Day.

At the Tabernacle last night the closing exercises of the Public schools were held and a very large crowd was present.

Some of the little children gave songs, drills and other exercises and there were recitations and declamations by the larger pupils. Diplomas were awarded to three young men and eight young ladies, graduates from the high school department.

The formal closing of the schools will take place at the buildings today, when promotion cards will be given and the session brought to an end.

Faculty Row at Bethel.

The faculty of Bethel College, at Russellville, has been reorganized and a general row kicked up by the Board of Trustees. Three of the most popular professors, who have long been connected with the school, have been discharged—Prof. Fuqua, Fruit and Shields. The faculty as agreed upon are Prof. George Swann, Prof. H. L. Trimble, Prof. S. E. Bradshaw, Prof. J. L. Beeson, Prof. Arthur Ramer, Prof. W. E. Farrar, and Prof. A. F. Williams.

As a result of the disruption a rival school will be started in Russellville, with Prof. Fuqua at its head.

Broke His Leg By a Fall.

Victor Armistead, aged 13, the youngest son of Dr. J. R. Armistead, fell from a tree in Dr. Blakey's yard Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock, and broke his left leg in three places near the hip joint. In addition he lacerated his right leg below the knee by falling on the sharp point of a picket of the fence under the tree. He fell on the fence with such force that the picket was torn off. His escape from a fatal accident was almost miraculous. He was one of about a dozen small boys who were playing in the street at the corner of Main and Eighteenth streets, and climbed up into the tree to hide from his companions. Several of the neighbors saw the boy fall and ran to his assistance and he was placed on a plank and taken to his home one square away. Drs. Blakey, Stites and Thomas were called in and the broken leg was set and the flesh wound dressed. The wound will not prove dangerous, but will keep the little fellow in bed for the better part of the summer. He was a pupil in the eighth grade at the public school.

A SUDDEN CALL.

Mr. John C. Cary Dies of a Paralytic Stroke.

Mr. John C. Cary, recently of this city, died very suddenly yesterday morning at the Phoenix Hotel of paralysis.

Mr. Cary was 59 years of age and until a few months ago lived at Princeton, Kentucky. In the early part of the present year he moved to this city with his wife, and they boarded with Mrs. Matilda Wallace, at 122 East Sixteenth street.

On Wednesday morning he went to Nashville to make some arrangements about handling wheat in this city, and returned at 7:40 p. m. He started home from down in the city about 8 o'clock, going out Clay street. This was the last seen of him until he was found about three o'clock by a colored man lying near the corner of Clay and Fourteenth streets. He was paralyzed from his waist down and was entirely helpless. He was able to explain that he had been stricken while on his way home and had remained on the ground from about 8 o'clock till 3 o'clock a. m., when found. His cries for help were heard during the night, but were not understood by the neighbors and no one went out to investigate. When found, Mr. Cary told where he boarded but said there was sickness in the family and it was best to take him somewhere else. He was accordingly taken to the Phoenix Hotel and medical assistance summoned. He lived only a few moments after reaching the hotel. His body was then taken to an undertaking establishment and his wife notified. The body was embalmed and will be taken to Princeton for interment this morning.

Mr. Cary had been twice married. A son by his first marriage lives at Knoxville, Tenn.

His second wife, the present Mrs. Cary, was Miss Lula Leavell, of this city, a daughter of the late Lewis L. Leavell.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. J. Nick Thomas and Miss Annie Gaines Surprise Their Friends.

Mr. J. Nick Thomas, the popular book-keeper at Forbes & Bro's., and Miss Annie Gaines, a pretty and petite South Main street belle, surprised their friends last evening by quietly entering into the matrimonial state at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clarence Blakemore.

The young couple have been sweethearts for some time, but only a few of their most intimate friends knew that their marriage was to come off so soon.

At 5 o'clock there was a wedding dinner, at which only a few couples of young people were present. These were Misses Fannie Wash, Lillian Beach and Gertrude Bramham, and Messrs Geo. W. Phelps, Jno. P. Thomas and R. Warner Thomas. Early in the evening a few others came in and at eight o'clock Rev. W. L. Nourse, of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the prettily decorated parlor.

The bride is a pronounced brunette, with slight, graceful figure, bright black eyes and a sweet face. She is quite young, being just out of school. She has been a very popular belle in the younger social set since she entered society a year or two ago. Mr. Thomas is a young man of fine character and excellent standing as a business man. He came to this city from Marion a few years ago and has held a responsible position with the largest business establishment in the city for two or more years.

They will board at Mrs. Blakemore's.

Russell Case Continued.

The case of the commonwealth vs. Jas. D. Russell, charged with murder, was called at Princeton Monday, and continued at the instance of the commonwealth. Russell is charged with having participated in the Howton mobbing. He was at large for some time, but was finally captured in Todd county. The feeling against Russell in Caldwell, was so bitter that the authorities had him brought here for safe keeping and he was carried to Princeton Monday morning. Bail has been refused and it is likely that the prisoner will be brought here again to await his trial at the next term of the Caldwell circuit court. Russell's mother, his wife and little child and a brother, accompanied him from here to Princeton, but returned to their homes the next day.

First Game of the Season.

The first game of ball of the season will be played this afternoon at Athletic Park between our local team, just recently organized, and the Madisonville club. Our home boys are in good practice and the visiting boys are said to be in first class trim and a fine game may be expected. The local battery is composed of Messrs. Pell and Smith. The usual admission will be charged on the occasion of today's game, but ladies will be admitted free. The game will be called at 3:30.

DISAPPEARED.

WHERE IS DIXIE WILSON OF HOPKINSVILLE?

The Well Known Drummer Has Not Been Heard From For Three Weeks.

Mr. A. L. Wilson, better known as Dixie Wilson, has mysteriously disappeared and nothing has been heard from him since the first of June.

He is a drummer for a well known whisky house of Louisville and has been for a number of years. He has always lived here and has a wife and several children. Mrs. Wilson has heard nothing from him this month and is very uneasy about him and letters of inquiry have been received from his house, from which it is learned that he has not communicated with the house for three weeks.

Mr. Wilson's territory is in the States of Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee and his disappearance is utterly inexplicable.

He was a trusted employe of his house, his domestic relations were pleasant, he had friends wherever he went and no reason can be given for his failure to return home or to report to his employers.

Mr. Wilson is a very large portly man, about 37 years of age, beardless except a slight moustache and is a pleasant, companionable young man, very popular on the road.

A reporter of the Kentuckian saw his father-in-law, Mr. J. T. Savage, yesterday afternoon and he had still not been heard from and Mr. Savage said that his family knew of no possible reason for his disappearance.

MUCHLY MARRIED.

A Young Woman of 23 Takes Her Third Husband.

A young lady who was married near Cadiz a few days ago has a record for marrying that is hard to beat. Though now only 23 years old, she has been married to three men, all of whom are now living.

Her maiden name was Miss Fannie Vowell and when 15 years old she was married to a man named Mason, from whom she was subsequently divorced. Mason married another wife and she herself in turn was united to husband number two, whose name was Wilkey. The second venture proved no more successful than the first and after a time she was again divorced. Wilkey has taken a second wife and now Miss Wilkey has become Mrs. Fred Trenchel. Her third husband was a young grass widower about 30 years of age. She has had no children.

Three men who have been her husbands are still living and each of the three has been twice married and all of their several wives and ex-wives are still living. It has required three divorces and six marriage ceremonies to bring about these matrimonial complications.

A DELUGE IN LYON COUNTY.

Heavy Damage Done to Property and Crops By Rain and Hail.

Eddyville, Ky., June 15.—Eddyville and a large part of Lyon county were visited last night by the heaviest rainfall that has ever deluged this section within the memory of the oldest citizens. The storm began to gather about 7:30 p. m., and for an hour or more there was a display of electrical pyrotechnics, accompanied by some heavy squalls of wind, such as is not often equaled. The rain began just before 9 p. m., and for an hour and a half it fell in such torrents as this county never witnessed before. Whole fields of corn and tobacco were washed up, and the vicinity of Saratoga postoffice fences, barns, stables and everything else movable in the path-way of the rushing torrents were washed away; hogs, sheep and barn yard fowls were drowned, and in several instances human life was seriously endangered. The damage to the county has been quite large. In the Glenn's Chapel neighborhood hail fell to the depth of several inches, the stones being very large and doing great damage to fruit and growing crops.

Shipped to Dover.

Lafayette, Ky., June 14.—Mr. H. D. Brame, one of Lafayette's most popular young men, and Miss Lizzie Brame, one of the most attractive and highly accomplished young ladies of the Roaring Springs neighborhood, eloped themselves to Dover last Monday, the 7th, and were married, much to the surprise of their many friends, as but very few of their most intimate friends knew that they contemplated such a "leap in the dark." There was no special objection.

They have engaged board at Mr. J. W. Griffin's and will be "at home" to their friends after the 16th inst.

"Broncho" has endorsed J. D. Martin, for postmaster at Madisonville.